
CHICAGO LIFE MEETINGS

Don't miss these three meetings that provide you with valuable information about Orientation Week and answer all of your burning questions about life at the University of Chicago!

CITY LIFE

Get your free C.T.A. card and get familiar with how to navigate your new hometown. Also, receive important information about campus security, resources for finding out about what is happening in Chicago, and general important information about Orientation and College life.

R.I.S.E. TO THE CHALLENGE: REFLECT. INTERVENE. SPEAK. ENGAGE.

As you become part of our vibrant and diverse campus community, you will have the opportunity to spend time discussing with your classmates our shared commitment to the values of respect and free expression that are the hallmarks of this University. You will learn about upcoming programs and courses of study that will challenge the way you view the world and how to access resources available to students. Join us to continue the on-going conversation of our shared responsibility to foster a welcoming and inclusive campus community to all of our members.

UCHOOSE

After a combination of improvisational comedy, education, and audience participation in the Sex Signals presentation, you will discuss the social responsibilities that you will face when addressing alcohol, drugs, sex, and your peers.
